Amazon Prime Discount for EBT / Medicaid

Amazon wants to make Amazon Prime membership more affordable to low-income households. Regular Amazon Prime membership is $119 a year or $12.99 a month. However, EBT cardholders & Medicaid cardholders can now get prime at $5.99 a month. That's more than a 50% discount on the regular price.

Instructions

- Step 1 – Visit the Amazon Prime Discount Site
Visit the Amazon Prime Discount website and click on “Get Started”.
- Step 2 – Upload EBT or Medicaid Card to Activate Discount

A screenshot of the Amazon Sign-In page. The page has a white background with a light gray border. At the top, the word 'Sign-In' is written in a large, black, sans-serif font. Below it, the text 'Email (phone for mobile accounts)' is written in a smaller, black, sans-serif font. Underneath this text is a white input field with a thin orange border. Below the input field is a yellow button with the word 'Continue' in black text. Below the button, the text 'By continuing, you agree to Amazon's Conditions of Use and Privacy Notice.' is written in a smaller, black, sans-serif font. Below this text is a blue link that says 'Need help?'. At the bottom of the page, there is a light gray button with the text 'Create your Amazon account' in black. A green arrow points from the left to the input field, and another green arrow points from the left to the 'Create your Amazon account' button.

- You need a current and valid Medicaid or EBT card to sign up. If you are currently receiving Food Stamps, WIC, TANF or General Assistance and have an EBT Card, you qualify.
